Brook V. Robertson Joins Bradley's Birmingham Office as Real Estate Associate

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Brook V. Robertson has joined the firm's Birmingham office as an associate in the Real Estate Practice Group.

Robertson assists clients in various commercial matters, including the acquisition, development and disposition of property and assets and complex commercial real estate transactions. Robertson works on both syndicated and non-syndicated loans. She also has experience representing banking and financial services clients in litigation matters.

Robertson earned her J.D. (cum laude) from Cumberland School of Law at Samford University and her Bachelor of Arts (magna cum laude) from Auburn University.