

Brouse McDowell Welcomes Former Supreme Court Justice Terrence O'Donnell

Brouse McDowell welcomes former Supreme Court Justice Terrence O'Donnell to the firm. Justice O'Donnell, retired from The Supreme Court of Ohio, and joined the law firm of Brouse McDowell in an Of Counsel capacity focusing on alternative dispute resolution and appellate matters.

Justice O'Donnell served on the Supreme Court of Ohio from 2003-2018, and is one of Ohio's longest-serving justices. During his time on the Court, he led statewide efforts to promote integrity and professionalism in law, leading to the creation of a nationally recognized Lawyer-to-Lawyer Mentoring Program. Justice O'Donnell also served on the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court for 14 years and the Eighth District Court of Appeals for eight years. He previously practiced law at Marshman, Snyder & Corrigan in Cleveland.

Justice O'Donnell has dedicated significant time to non-profit causes. He served as Chairman of the Ohio Legal Rights Service Commission, an organization that advocates for the human, civil and legal rights of people with disabilities in Ohio, and as a member of the Board of Trustees of Our Lady of the Wayside, an organization dedicated to serving the needs of the mentally and physically challenged.

Justice O'Donnell has received numerous accolades, including recognition as "Person of the Year" by the Mayo Society of Greater Cleveland in 2015, and as the recipient of the Jurisprudence Award from the American ORT Cleveland Chapter in 2006. Further, he received St. Edward High School's Alumnus of the Year Award in 2005, Kent State University's award for outstanding graduate of the College of Arts & Sciences, and Cleveland State University's Distinguished Alumni Award.

Justice O'Donnell received his bachelor's degree in political science from Kent State University, and his JD from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law.
