

Brouse McDowell Welcomes New Partner, George Millich, Jr.

Brouse McDowell is proud to welcome George P. Millich, Jr. to our Trusts & Estates Practice Group.

George joins Brouse as a new Partner working in our Youngstown office. His practice focuses on estate planning, probate, tax law and business succession planning. With him, he brings significant experience in providing counsel to fiduciaries on estate and trust administration, including interpreting language in wills and trusts, providing counsel to non-profit entities on obtaining original charitable status qualification, and other tax related issues specific to tax-exempt organizations. Prior to joining Brouse, George worked as Chief Fiduciary Officer and Senior Vice President for Farmers Trust Company and was previously a partner at a Northeast Ohio law firm.

George earned his BSBA from Youngstown State University before going on to graduate from The University of Akron School of Business with a Master of Taxation and then received his JD from The University of Akron School of Law.
