

Buchalter Adds Additional Attorneys in San Diego

Buchalter is pleased to welcome new litigators Vincent Whittaker and Skye Daley to its San Diego office. Both Whittaker and Daley's primary focus is complex business and commercial litigation throughout California.

Whittaker is an experienced federal and state trial lawyer with approximately two decades of handling high-stakes complex commercial litigation. He handles a wide variety of commercial business disputes, including lender liability, complex real estate matters, construction disputes, breach of contract, employment discrimination, negligent misrepresentation and fraud, trade secret and unfair competition, as well as shareholder and partnership disputes.

Committed to philanthropy, Whittaker is currently a board member for the Southwestern Growers Committee. He has also been recognized as a "Top Lawyer" (Business & Commercial Litigation), by Palm Springs Life Magazine from 2011-2019.

Daley's experience includes representing clients in both federal and state court, as well as in arbitration and in administrative proceedings. He has extensive experience representing employers in a variety of employment matters, advising his clients on questions of labor and employment compliance, and successfully asserting client rights in copyright and trade secret disputes.
