

Buchalter Announces J. Craig Cartwright as New Office Managing Shareholder in Arizona

January 26, 2021. Buchalter is pleased to announce that J. Craig Cartwright has officially begun his position as the new office Managing Shareholder in Arizona. He spent the last several months working with Paul M. Weiser, the Arizona office Managing Shareholder since 2005, to ensure a smooth transition.

Co-Chair of the Firm's REIT Transactions and Compliance Industry Group, Cartwright represents lenders, developers, real estate investment trusts, investors, and national corporations in a broad range of real estate transaction matters including sales and acquisitions, secured lending, property development, commercial leasing, bankruptcy workouts, and construction-related matters. He has significant experience drafting and negotiating purchase and sale documents, easements, leases, and deeds for his clients. In addition, Cartwright has experience managing the formation of corporate entities including bankruptcy-remote entities and commercial and corporate law matters. Prior to joining Buchalter, Cartwright was with DLA Piper.
