Buchalter Rehires Anthony Callobre as Commercial Finance Partner in LA

Buchalter has rehired Anthony Callobre as a commercial finance partner in its Los Angeles office, the firm announced in Los Angeles.

Callobre represents credit providers, including commercial banks, finance companies, private debt and private equity groups, as well as borrowers in financial and strategic transactions. His practice focuses on a range of financing matters across the commercial and industrial sectors.

Adam Bass, president and chief executive officer of Buchalter, said Callobre’s experience in financing transactions and cross-border deals will expand the firm’s capabilities in commercial finance.

Callobre advises clients on transactions ranging from middle-market to investment-grade credits. His experience includes single-lender and syndicated credits, senior-secured and mezzanine facilities, leveraged and asset-based loans, fund financings, acquisition loans, and cross-border transactions. He also handles restructurings, debtor-in-possession financings, and Section 363 sales.

Buchalter is a full-service business law firm with more than 600 attorneys and offices in California, Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Oregon, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, and Washington. The firm represents clients in practice areas including commercial finance, corporate law, health care, litigation, insolvency, intellectual property, labor and employment, real estate, and tax and estate planning.
