

Business Attorney Hallie D. Heath Joins Dykema's Milwaukee Office

Milwaukee – May 2, 2022 – Dykema, a leading national law firm, today announced the addition of Hallie Heath to its Corporate Finance Practice Group in the firm's recently opened Milwaukee office.

Heath has experience handling matters in the areas of wealth planning, real estate, and general business matters. She earned a J.D., cum laude, a B.A. in Psychology, with distinction, and certificates in Business and Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

While attending the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Heath received several academic honors and awards, including earning the Dean's Academic Achievement Award. She was selected to be a member of the Wisconsin Law Review, including a stint serving as one of its managing editors.

"We are excited to further expand our service in Milwaukee with Hallie's wealth planning and real estate experience," said Kate Bechen, Managing Member of Dykema's Milwaukee Office. "Hallie is well-positioned to immediately integrate with our clients. She is an asset to our growing team."

Heath is also a member of the Association for Women Lawyers.
