

Camille Milner 2020 Recipient of Gay G. Cox Award for Excellence in Collaborative Law by Collaborative Divorced Texas

Camille Milner has been named the 2020 Recipient of the Gay G. Cox Award for Excellence in Collaborative Law bestowed by Collaborative Divorce Texas. Milner, who has been practicing in Denton, Texas since 1985, is Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and holds the designation of Master Credential by Collaborative Divorce Texas. Gay G. Cox was an early proponent of and trained hundreds of professionals in the Collaborative Divorce Process. Cox passed away in January 2013 after suffering injuries in an accident. Like Cox, Milner has trained hundreds of lawyers, mental health professionals and financial professionals in the Collaborative Divorce process, which enables divorcing couples a process that is respectful, private and efficient, enabling them to settle their case outside Court. This process of negotiation is also used with couples in preparing Pre-Marital/Pre-Nuptial and Marital Agreements.
