

Canonsburg Awards Contracts for Public Works, Parking Projects

“Canonsburg Borough Council awarded contracts Monday for several community projects, including additional parking downtown and renovations to the public works building. Council voted unanimously to award a $1,019,384 contract to Quigley Development for the Lou Bell Drive parking,” reports Katherine Mansfield in Observer Reporter.

“Council President Eric Chandler said he hopes to break ground on the 90-space parking lot behind the Rite Aid strip mall by the end of next month. Residents have voiced concern over a lack of parking as downtown expands, and the parking lot is part of council’s plan to increase access to the myriad of new businesses moving in. Council also.”

Read the article.