Cassidy & Mueller, P.C. Managing Partner Andrew (Drew) Cassidy Joins International Association of Defense Counsel

The International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) has announced that Andrew D. (Drew) Cassidy, managing partner at Cassidy & Mueller, P.C. in Peoria, Illinois, has accepted an invitation to join the IADC, the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests.

Mr. Cassidy practices in the area of civil litigation with a concentration in the defense of bodily injury claims, insurance coverage, probate, and real estate.

Mr. Cassidy is a member of the Peoria County and Illinois State bar associations and is a past two-term member of the board of directors of the Illinois Association of Defense Trial Counsel. In addition, he has served on the boards of numerous civic organizations, and recently retired from the City of Peoria Liquor Commission after having served for 26 years, including the last seven years as its chairman.

Mr. Cassidy received his J.D. from Northern Illinois University College of Law and his Bachelor of Science from Marquette University.

About the International Association of Defense Counsel
The IADC is the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests. Founded in 1920, the IADC has members who hail from six continents, 51 countries and territories, and all 50 U.S. states. The core purposes of the IADC are to enhance the development of skills, promote professionalism, and facilitate camaraderie among its members and their clients, as well as the broader civil justice community. For more information, visit www.iadclaw.org.
