

On-Demand: Successfully Navigating Open Source Software Issues in M&A

Event, Oct. 26, 11 a.m. EDT

Black Duck Software has posted online a complimentary webinar examining key open source software-related issues and deal points in M&A, licensing and other transactions.

Las Vegas Firm Files Lawsuit Against Bump Stock Manufacturer

News

Eglet Prince law firm filed the 30-page suit in state district court, citing claims of negligence, infliction of emotional distress, products liability and public nuisance, according to the Las Vegas Review-Journal.

Oil Majors Face Lawsuits on Climate Change Issues

News

The plaintiffs hold the fossil fuel companies accountable for rising sea levels, changing landscapes, higher global temperatures and increased risk of storms and droughts, Zacks reports.

Why Lawyers Won't Be Replaced By Smart Contracts

Insight

The smart contract carries out what it is programmed to do, and that's it. It doesn't think independently, nor does it provide any reasoned analysis, writes Gary J. Ross.

Feds Accuse Georgia GC of Helping Orchestrate Client's Ponzi Scheme

News

Georgia lawyer was an "active participant" in fleecing elderly and unsophisticated investors out of their savings, reports the Atlanta Journal Constitution.

Equifax Breach Caused by Lone Employee's Error, Former CEO Says

News

The Equifax data breach happened because a single employee failed to implement software fixes, the company's former chief executive told members of Congress.

Undefinitized Contracts – Turner Construction Co. v. Smithsonian Institution