Lawyers Get Ready for First-Ever Supreme Court Oral Arguments by Phone

News

The Supreme Court’s announcement this week that it will hold oral arguments via teleconference for the first time in its history has a small group of America’s top attorneys prepping for the most important phone calls of their careers.

Chinese Government Sued in Multiple Class Actions by U.S. Citizens and Businesses

News

An initial wave of three class actions stemming from COVID-19 were filed against the Chinese government this past week.

City Of Ferguson Hit With $1.7 Million Settlement For

Municipal Court Abuses

News

A St. Louis County Circuit judge has given preliminary approval to a nearly $1.7 million settlement on a class-action lawsuit

---

Department of Justice Uses Travel Act to Prosecute Health Care Fraud

News

In April 2019, a federal jury found seven defendants associated with the Forest Park Medical Center (FPMC) in Dallas, Texas guilty on charges of conspiring to pay or receive health care bribes.

Keep Learning While Your Case Is in Limbo: Seven Ways to Use the Pause

News

One after another, like dominos, court systems are shutting down or moving to drastic restrictions. In the process, court dates are being pulled and cases are moving into limbo.

INSIGHT: New DoD Cybersecurity Certification Holds Key to Contracts

News

New Department of Defense cybersecurity certification will represent contractors' ticket to get into the game, Baker Donelson attorneys write. Without that ticket, contractors will not have a chance to compete for and win DoD contracts.

Lawyer Says Carr Issue 'Out Of Control'

News

Amid investigations, litigation and public scrutiny over allegedly exorbitant executive compensation at the Florida Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Tiffany Carr, the woman at the center of the maelstrom, has remained almost silent.

DoD Wants to 'Reconsider

Certain Aspects’ of Decision to Award Microsoft $10B JEDI Contract

News

New court filings reveal that the Department of Defense wants to ‘reconsider certain aspects’ of its decision to award Microsoft with the coveted $10 billion Joint Enterprise Defense Infrastructure contract.

The Rise of Disruptionware and High-Impact Ransomware Attacks

Insight

The FBI’s PSA serves as a warning to businesses that they should have a plan in place to respond efficiently and appropriately in the event of high impact ransomware and disruptionware attacks.

Trump’s lawyers began the impeachment trial with a blizzard of lies

News

Members of President Donald Trump’s legal team wasted no time telling a number of lies before things really got going.

Starr, Dershowitz, Ray: Trump Leans on High-Wattage Lawyers for Impeachment

News

Ken Starr, a Fox news commentator whose special counsel investigations led to President Bill Clinton’s impeachment, has been added to the team.

Impeachment Puts Pause on Trump’s Reshaping of Courts

News

Kamala Harris had called on Senate Republicans to hold up their judicial confirmation pipeline during Trump’s impeachment trial.

NYC Bar Urges Congressional Inquiry Into AG Barr's Conduct

News

The letter to the leaders highlighted four public statements the AG made that the association found troubling.

Justice Department Says Virginia Action Would Come Too Late to Ratify ERA

News

The ERA Coalition said it "strongly disagrees" with the DOJ's memo.

The Biggest Supreme Court Cases to Watch in 2020

News

The Supreme Court will hear a slate of highly charged disputes

when the justices return to the bench in the new year and resume one of the most politically volatile terms in recent memory.

Ex-GC Sues Faraday & Future; Was Poached From Mayer Brown

News

Hong Liu claims that the electric car startup lured him away from a Mayer Brown LLP partnership by fraudulently overstating its prospects.

Financial Tug-Of-War Emerges Over California Fire Victims' Settlement

News

The settlement leaves open just how much would be used to compensate victims, their lawyers and federal and state agencies for the money they spent on rescue and recovery operations.

Kentucky AG Asks FBI to Investigate Ex-Gov. Matt Bevin's Pardons

News

Attorney General Daniel Cameron cited concern for public safety in a letter he wrote to state legislators who had asked him to launch a state investigation into the pardons.

Impeachment Maelstrom Pulls Chief Justice Into Politics He Shuns

News

Chief Justice John Roberts could use some disputes as an opportunity to try to give the proceedings an aura of fairness.

Divided Virginia Federal Court Hears Trump Emoluments

Case

News

The hearing marks the first time that a full appellate court has considered the emoluments or anticorruption clauses of the Constitution.