Shareholders Get Rare Win in Freeport Deal Lawsuit

NEWS

Freeport-McMoRan Inc. reportedly is nearing a $100 million-plus settlement to resolve shareholder litigation over its 2013 purchase of two oil-and-gas companies, an unusually big win for investors, who are increasingly challenging merger deals.

Restaurant.com Trying to Avoid Penalties in Light of Rulings

NEWSNEWS

Restaurant.com is arguing in federal court that it shouldn’t be forced to pay penalties for gift certificates it sold in the past, penalties that could go as high at $1 million.

Netflix Claims Former Executive Took Kickbacks on

Sales

NEWS

Former Netflix vice president of IT and current Yahoo CIO Mike Kail has been accused in a lawsuit of taking thousands of dollars in kickbacks while he was at Netflix.

Target Tries to Limit Liability to Banks

NEWS

Target Corp. is trying to avoid liability for tens of millions of dollars banks claim to have lost after hackers broke into the retailer’s payment processing systems a year ago.

Arizona Sues GM for $3 Billion Over Recalls, Cites In-House Attorneys

NEWS

Arizona has filed suit against General Motors, claiming that the automaker defrauded the state’s consumers of an estimated $3 billion, The New York Times reports.

Credit Monitoring Company Settles With FTC

NEWS

Credit monitoring company One Technologies LP will refund $22 million to customers to settle U.S government allegations that its websites inadequately disclosed its charges for credit scores.

Apple Told to Pay $23.6 Million Over Pager Technology

NEWS

A Texas federal court jury found that Apple Inc. used SkyTel pager technology from the 1990s in iPhone, iPad and iPod without permission.

Five Good Reasons Why Even the Most Cutthroat Lawyers

Should Want to Cooperate

On-Demand

Kroll Ontrack presents a complimentary on-demand webinar on the importance of cooperation at the e-discovery stage of litigation.

Takata Air Bag Problem Gets Worse

NEWS

The controversy surrounding the allegedly defective shrapnel-slinging exploding air bags continues to grow, now that with Nissan says it will add another 52,000 vehicles to its recall effort.

Media Companies Want Programming Contracts Kept Confidential

NEWS

Some media companies have sought a court order to stop the U.S. Federal Communications Commission from disclosing programming contracts as part of its review of Comcast Corp.’s proposed purchase of Time Warner Cable Inc.

Lowering Workers Comp Costs – Best Practices