The ‘New’ Mexico: The Status of Mexico’s Energy Reform and How U.S. Companies Can Benefit

White Paper

The questions to consider are: what are the opportunities, what are the challenges, and how can U.S. companies make this groundbreaking change work for them?

Supreme Court Opens Door to Increased Role for State Courts, Regulators in the Energy Sector

NEWS

The decision upheld a lower court decision that allowed a greater role for state courts in regulating the energy sectorfinding that state laws may apply to conduct that affects both wholesale and retail transactions provided those laws do not conflict with FERC regulations.

Large Partnership Audits in the Oil & Gas Industry

On-Demand

Three Latham & Watkins partners address the growing discussion around the increase in large partnership audit activity.

U.S. Exports to Mexico and the Growth of Cross-Border Demand

On-Demand

Growing demand from Mexico continues to be a bright spot for the oversupplied U.S. gas market.

What Will Oil and Gas Companies Face in a New Investment Environment?

EVENTS: April 28, 2 p.m. EDT

Event will discuss strategies for oil and gas companies across the value chain, including upstream, oilfield services, midstream, and downstream, in a challenging investment environment.

Title Due Diligence in a Distressed Energy Market

White Paper

Producers benefit greatly from a legal and due diligence team that has worked together on multiple transactions over a period of time.

Energy Webinar: Success Through Process Management

On-Demand

Aconex has posted a free webinar discussing the finer points of process management in energy industry projects.

The Gulf Coast: The World’s Factory Floor for Refined Products

On-Demand

The region’s refineries churn out massive amounts of clean products onto an immense system of pipelines and ports, shipping to far-flung parts of the world at competitive costs.

BLM Issues Final Rule for Fracking on Federal and Tribal Lands

White Paper

Updating 25-yearold regulations that did not address fracking in detail, BLM established requirements for fracking requests, well integrity, disclosure of chemicals and storage of recovered fluids.

Department of Labor Targets Oil and Gas Industry for Wage-Hour Compliance

NEWS

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease said this is not the first DOL foray into wage-and-hour practices within the oil and gas industry.

Collapsing Oil Prices: Strategies and Opportunities

White Paper

A white paper published by ICF International examines how different oil price scenarios will have varied implications, strategies, and opportunities for producers, midstream developers, and investors.

Accounting for Oil And Gas Hedges: The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly

White Paper

An increase in U.S. domestic crude oil and natural gas production coupled with transportation infrastructure limitations have resulted in supply and demand imbalances across the country and increased market price volatilities.

Workforce Data Security in the Oil & Gas Industry

White Paper

Cyber threats to oil and gas production – both cyber espionage campaigns and damaging cyber-attacks – are increasing, according to a white paper published by Oil and Gas IQ.

Environmental Assessment of Natural Gas in Transportation

On-Demand

A free on-demand webinar from the UC Davis Policy Institute for Energy, Environment, and the Economy compares the carbon intensity of natural gas and diesel long haul trucks.

Innovation and IP Trends in the Oil and Gas Sector

White Paper

Companies that ignore the patent activities of their competitors expose themselves to the risks of infringement actions, which can be both costly and disruptive to business.

Every Drop Counts: How To

Increase Production With Fewer Wells

On-Demand

A free on-demand webinar from P2 Energy Solutions addresses the importance of exception-based surveillance processes in the oil production business, which pinpoint production anomalies and alert teams to these issues in near real time.

---

4 Key Restructuring Considerations for Distressed E&P Companies

White Paper

In an online interview, Latham & Watkins partner Mitchell Seider outlines some of the many significant legal issues associated with restructuring of distressed exploration and production (E&P) companies and their lenders.

Oil Price Deflation and the Age of Abundance

White Paper

Strategy& experts examine in a white paper the impact $50 oil is currently having on spending within the oil and gas products and services space.

Integrated Reserves Analysis: Finding Opportunity in Low Oil Prices

On-Demand

A free on-demand webinar offered by P2Energy Solutions shows how you can uncover hidden opportunities through reserves visualizations and get the most out of the current market.

Exploring the Role of Natural Gas in U.S. Trucking

On-Demand

The UC Davis Policy Institute for Energy, Environment, and the Economy has posted a complimentary webinar on role of natural gas on trucking in the United States, presenting new research by the UC Davis Institute of Transportation Studies.