Construction Contracts: Owner’s Project Controls Review

Sept. 10, 12 p.m. CDT
As a part of its ongoing webinar series “Understanding construction contract controls and construction audit best practices,” Baker Tilly will present a complimentary webinar on the use of testing and verification to help a development team deliver a successful project.

Environmental Rules Update for Power Plant Personnel

On-Demand
POWER magazine presents a complimentary on-demand webinar on environmental regulatory issues confronting the utility industry as the Environmental Protection Agency continues to ratchet down emission rates and discharge limits through rules involving air, water, and waste regulations.

Contracts and Bankruptcy: 5

Steps That Get You Paid

Sept. 3, 1 p.m. CDT
A webinar presented by zlien will discuss how to secure lien rights and guarantee payment in the context of a bankruptcy involving a construction contract.

Analyzing the New $60 Billion Contract Opportunity

On-Demand
Bloomberg Government in partnership with the Coalition for Government Procurement offers a free on-demand webinar previewing the structure, scope and competitive landscape on OASIS multiple-award contracts.

The New Consumers of Utility Data

Sept. 10, 2 p.m. EDT
Urjanet will present a complimentary webinar on how big data is becoming a must-have for multiple departments within an organization to achieve their distinct goals.

Complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act

On-Demand
Davis, Brown, Koehn, Shors & Roberts, P.C. has posted a complimentary on-demand webinar discussing compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

How to Conduct Workplace Investigations That Hold Up in Court

Hatmaker Law Group presents free monthly employment law webinars.

Legal and Effective Reference Checking and Education Verification

Sept. 4, 2:30 p.m. EDT
HR.com will present a complimentary webcast on verifying past employment and education and obtaining references.

Compliance Map Enterprise: A Webinar Demonstration

Sept. 4, 10 a.m. PDT
The Compliance Map will host a free webinar covering a demo of its enterprise software solution for the management of environmental compliance regulations.

A State of the Utilities Industry Study – What Keeps You Awake at Night?

Sept. 4, 12 p.m. EDT
Faced with everything from unpredictable weather to changing renewable energy portfolios to volatile fuel prices, utilities can only be certain about one thing: uncertainty.

Managing Partial State of Charge in Microgrids

Sept. 2, 11 a.m;. CDT
HOMER Energy joins market partner Trojan Battery Company for an online educational presentation

---

ARMA Webinar: Cross-Border E-Discovery

UBIC is making available a complimentary on-demand ARMA webinar on issues and solutions related to finding, transferring and reviewing digital evidence, through Sept. 30.

Legal and Contracts Collaboration

Optimus BT will present a complimentary webinar for legal and contract teams looking to manage full contract lifecycle from drafting contracts, to approvals, eSignatures and contract administration.

Advanced Contract Negotiations

The Association of Corporate Counsel offers a free on-demand webcast focusing on advanced drafting and negotiating strategies that may be used in connection with virtually every type of contract.

Eliminate Roadblocks to Integrated Contract and Revenue Management

Are your contracting and revenue management processes jamming you up? Revitas offers a free on-demand webcast designed to help participants set up a well-planned route to relieve the jams.

Managing Risk During PV Plant Development

Solar Power World will present a complimentary webinar on assessing risks and uncertainties throughout the development of photovoltaic plants.

Increasing Renewable Energy with Hydrogen Storage and Fuel Cell Technologies

The U.S. Energy Department offers a free on-demand webinar titled “Increasing Renewable Energy with Hydrogen Storage and Fuel Cell Technologies.”

The ABC’s of EVs: IEEE Power & Energy Society Young Professionals Webinar

August 28, 3 p.m. EDT
The IEEE Power & Energy Society Young Professionals will present a webinar on the potential of electric vehicles (EVs) to reduce fossil fuel consumption and increase energy independence.

Exploring the In-House

Balancing Act of Cost Management

Bridgeway University will present a webcast that explores the balancing act of reducing legal costs while managing risk.

Ebola and the Law: What You Need to Know

The Network for Public Health Law, CDC’s Public Health Law Program and the American Health Lawyers Association co-sponsored a webinar on the legal implications of ebola.