Akerman Trusts & Estates Partner Paul Collins in NY Office

News

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm, has announced the continued expansion of its Tax Practice Group with the addition of veteran trusts and estates partner Paul Collins in New York. He joins the firm from Schiff Hardin.

Former Sprint Executives Sue U.S. for Allegedly Hiding EY Probe

News

The suit involves a 2002 Internal Revenue Service investigation into Ernst & Young's promotion of tax shelters to its clients, including the two executives and settled the audit with EY in July 2003, without informing the executives, the lawsuit said.

Trump Facing Legal, Tax

Questions

News

Donald Trump is facing some tax and legal challenges that could complicate his bid for the White House, reports Bankrate.

Schiff Hardin Welcomes Tax Associate in Ann Arbor

Schiff Hardin LLP announced that Marcy Rosen has joined the firm’s Ann Arbor, Michigan office as an associate in the Tax Group.

Bankler Report: Congressional Tax Bill

Analysis

Will you or your law firm practice be affected by this week’s compromise by Congressional leaders regarding taxes and deductions if it becomes law?

House Reaches Accord on Spending and Tax Cuts

NEWS

The vote illustrates the deep disagreements over an array of policy provisions that have left weeks of negotiations tinged with acrimony.

Large Partnership Audits in the Oil & Gas Industry

On-Demand

Three Latham & Watkins partners address the growing discussion around the increase in large partnership audit activity.

Key Energy-Related Tax Provisions in the 2016 Budget Proposal

White Paper

McDermott Will & Emery has prepared a white paper on energy-related provisions in his recently released budget proposal for the 2016 fiscal year.

The New Revenue Recognition Standard: Tax Implications

On-Demand

Ernst & Young has posted a free on-demand webinar on a converged standard for recognizing revenue under U.S. GAAP and IFRS introduced during 2014.

IRS Specifies Performance, Quality Standards For Small Wind Turbines

NEWS

North American Windpower has published an article discussing a new notice from the Internal Revenue Service setting performance and quality standards that small wind turbines must meet in order to qualify for the 30% investment tax credit.

How Manufacturers Can Drive,

Measure and Capture Value

EVENT: Jan. 29, 8:30 a.m. CST

Ostrow Reisin Berk & Abrams, Ltd. will present a free seminar on Jan. 29, 2015, where speakers will be discussing topics focused on the manufacturing industry.

President Signs Tax Increase Prevention Act of 2014: Incentives for Employers and Individuals

White Paper

Davis & Kuelthau has published a white paper explaining a new law that retroactively extended through the end of 2014 more than 50 tax breaks that had expired on December 31, 2013.

Lawmakers Re-introduce Bill to Curb Offshore Tax Havens

NEWS

A pair of Democratic lawmakers in the House and Senate have re-introduced legislation aimed at preventing the abuse of offshore tax havens by multinational companies, reports Accounting Today.

IRS ‘Safe Harbor’ Can Protect Labor Tax Cheats

NEWS

A decades-old loophole in federal law allows many companies to identify their workers as independent contractors for tax purposes even though the workers are, in fact, employees.

Prospects for WOTC Renewal: A Well-Known Lobbyist Explains

Nov. 20, 1 p.m. CST

Equifax Workforce Solutions will present a complimentary webinar about the latest developments in Washington affecting the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) program.

Norton Rose Fulbright’s M&A in 2014

Setp. 4, 12 p.m. CDT

Norton Rose Fulbright will present a complimentary webinar on tax considerations that optimize after-tax returns in acquisitive transactions.

Explaining Your Tax Affairs for Extractives

On-Demand

PwC offers a free on-demand webcast on the evolving country-by-country tax reporting landscape for companies involved in the extractives industry.