

Chamberlain Hrdlicka Continues Expansion Of Labor And Employment Practice With Addition Of Kaitlin Lammers

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce the addition of Kaitlin Lammers as counsel in the Atlanta office. Lammers joins the firm's growing Labor & Employment practice, which has a national reputation for its work in wage and hour class and collective actions. Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Labor & Employment practice has attorneys covering all of its offices, underscoring the firm's commitment to boosting its ability to serve companies involved in complex employment litigation matters. Lammers is also the fifth addition to the firm's Atlanta office this year.

Prior to joining Chamberlain Hrdlicka, Lammers served corporate clients and nationwide affiliates to provide advice and defense in labor and employment matters. Lammers has experience managing complex litigation, and risk management.

Lammers has successfully counseled corporate clients in labor and employment disputes, ranging from employee relations issues, union organizing campaigns and elections, arbitrations, and administrative adjudicatory proceedings before state and federal agencies. Additionally, she has advised clients on compliance with a wide variety of federal laws, including the National Labor Relations Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act,, Title VII and their state-law counterparts, as well as compliance with employers' collective bargaining agreements and other employment contracts.

Lammers earned her undergraduate degree from Boston University and her law degree from the University of Connecticut School of Law.