

Chamberlain Hrdlicka To Host First Virtual Tax And Business Planning Seminar

Chamberlain Hrdlicka is pleased to announce that it will host its first virtual Tax and Business Planning Seminar Tuesday through Thursday, November 10-12, 2020 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday and at 12:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday. The year's seminar will showcase presentations from attorneys in each of our offices. The event is open to the public, and ideal for accountants, business leaders responsible for financial operations, financial planners and lawyers who guide clients in tax matters.

Attendees will gain valuable knowledge from members of Chamberlain Hrdlicka's nationally recognized tax, labor and employment, corporate and employee benefits practices.

This three-day series will include half-day seminars on topics such as:

- Recent Tax Court valuation opinions that could put you in dire straits;
- Top employee benefits plan issues;
- Tax implications of the Paycheck Protection Program and related expenses;
- Bankruptcy in the COVID-19 age;
- Tax planning in a down-cycle economy;
- Impact of COVID-19 on state and local taxes (SALT);
- Estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax case law developments;
- 2020 International tax update; and,
- Old but gold strategies in estate planning.

Workshops will be led by Atlanta-based Shareholders John Hackney, Scot Kirkpatrick and Christopher Steele, Senior Counsel Steve Wyatt, Associate Jasen Hanson, Philadelphia-based Shareholder and SALT Practice Co-Chair Jennifer Karpchuk, Shareholder and SALT Practice Chair Emeritus Stewart Weintraub and Special Counsel Mark Lubin.

Registration on or before November 9 is $20 per day or $50 for all three days. 3.0 hours of CLE credit has been approved for Georgia attorneys on Tuesday and 4.0 hours of CLE credit has been approved for Wednesday and Thursday. 3.6 hours of CPE credit are recommended for Georgia CPAs for Tuesday and 4.8 hours of CPE credit are recommended for Georgia CPAs for Wednesday and Thursday. Anyone is welcome to register to attend.
