

Chamberlain Hrdlicka Virtual Annual Tax and Business Planning Seminar

Chamberlain Hrdlicka will host its first virtual Tax and Business Planning Seminar Tuesday through Thursday, November 10-12, 2020.

This year's seminar will showcase presentations from Chamberlain Hrdlicka's nationally recognized tax, estate planning, bankruptcy, corporate and employee benefits attorneys across the firm's all four offices, including Houston and San Antonio. The event is open to the public, but particularly well suited for accountants and business leaders responsible for financial operations, financial planners and lawyers who guide clients in tax matters. Up to 11 CLE and 13.2 CPE credits available in Texas.

Attendees will gain valuable knowledge from members of Chamberlain Hrdlicka's nationally recognized tax, labor and employment, corporate and employee benefits practices.

This three-day series will include half-day seminars on topics such as:

- Recent Tax Court valuation opinions that could put you in dire straits;
- Top employee benefits plan issues;
- Tax implications of the Paycheck Protection Program and related expenses;
- Bankruptcy in the COVID-19 age;
- Tax planning in a down-cycle economy;
- Impact of COVID-19 on state and local taxes (SALT);
- Estate, gift and generation-skipping transfer tax case law developments;
- 2020 International tax update; and,

- Old but gold strategies in estate planning.

Workshops will be led by Houston and San Antonio-based shareholders: Brett T. Berly, Sebastien N. Chain, Phyllis A. Guillory, Jarrod Martin, Joshua A. Sutin, Jaime Vasquez, Juan F. Vasquez, Jr. and Justin E. VandenBout.

Registration on or before November 9 is $20 per day or $50 for all three days. Check out complete details.
