

Chambers USA 2023 Ranks Brouse McDowell's Insurance and Healthcare Practices and 5 Attorneys as Leading Practitioners

We are pleased to announce that the 2023 edition of Chambers USA recognized Brouse McDowell for Insurance: Policyholder (Ohio) for the fourth year in a row and for Healthcare (Ohio) for the second year in a row.

The firm earned a Band 1 ranking in the Insurance: Policyholder (Ohio) category, and ranked Paul Rose as a leading practitioner in Band 1 for Insurance.

Chambers notes that the team “[r]uns the gamut of policyholder representation, acting for domestic and international companies across a range of industries. The firm’s extensive recovery capabilities include environmental, construction and crime coverage claims. It is also noted for its strength in areas such as product liability and construction lines.”

A Chambers source mentions that Brouse McDowell “is a go-to firm,” while another source notes that “[t]he attorneys have all been incredibly adept and capable of handling complex issues and breaking down those issues for us in an understandable way.”

The firm also earned a ranking in the Healthcare (Ohio) category, with three attorneys ranked as leading practitioners:

Daniel K. Glessner

Laura F. Fryan

Christopher M. Huryn

Chambers notes that this is an “esteemed group whose expertise is leant upon by a broad stable of healthcare industry clients, including hospitals, physicians groups and sector-specific IT companies. The team's diverse expertise includes in healthcare transactions, licensing matters and related regulatory issues."

Chambers' sources note that "[t]he depth and breadth of Brouse McDowell's team is very strong. They also provide great service and are always on top of latest topics and discussions within the healthcare industry" and that "[t]he practitioners have an excellent ability to grasp the situation and show excellent communication."

The firm also earned a new individual ranking in the Bankruptcy/Restructuring (Ohio) category for Marc B. Merklin, Chair of the Business Restructuring, Bankruptcy & Commercial Law Practice Group, who was recognized for the first time by Chambers USA.

Each year, Chambers USA ranks the top lawyers and law firms across the United States. The rankings are assessed by an experienced team of researchers to provide reliable and trusted recommendations to purchasers of legal services. Multiple factors are considered in determining rankings, including the level of experience in a particular practice area and jurisdiction, client service, industry knowledge, awareness of client issues, standards of professional conduct, depth of team, and value for the money. This extensive research process includes interviews with those active in the market – mainly clients and other lawyers with whom they work – and an evaluation of recent work done.

For more information on the rankings, please click here. To see all rankings and commentary for Brouse McDowell, click here.