

Chris Lemons joins Chamberlain Hrdlicka's Houston Office as Associate

HOUSTON – (October 9, 2020) – Chris Lemons recently joined the Houston office of the national law firm, Chamberlain Hrdlicka, as an associate in the Commercial Litigation practice.

Lemons brings more than 5 years of commercial litigation experience, representing a wide variety of clients and companies in numerous practice areas of litigation, including insurance law, medical malpractice, and personal injury defense. At Chamberlain Hrdlicka, his practice will focus on complex commercial litigation, business litigation, energy litigation, securities litigation, professional malpractice claims, complex tort litigation, and insurance coverage involving errors and omissions, directors and officers, commercial general liability, commercial property, and commercial auto and garage.

Lemons graduated with summa cum laude honors from Texas State University, where he was inducted into the Beta Gamma Sigma International Honors Society and the Alpha Chi Honors Society. He received his JD degree from South Texas College of Law, where he graduated magna cum laude as sixth in his class and was inducted into the Order of the Lytae and the Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society. He also earned eight CALI Excellence for the Future Awards and served as an assistant articles editor for the South Texas Law Review while in law school.

Lemons is a member of the State Bar of Texas, Texas Association of Defense Counsel, Houston Bar Association, Houston Young Lawyers Association, Defense Research Institute, and the Greater Houston Society for Healthcare Risk Management. He's been named "Top Lawyer" by the Houstonia Magazine in 2017 and 2018.