

Chubb Names Gina Rebollar Deputy General Counsel for Global Corporate Affairs

“Chubb announced ... that Gina Rebollar has been named Deputy General Counsel, Global Corporate Affairs. Ms. Rebollar will lead the company’s global corporate affairs team with responsibility for legal matters related to global corporate, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, asset management and intellectual property. She will work closely with Chubb Limited’s Board of Directors and advise the company’s Corporate Development, Treasury, Human Resources and Global Communications functions as well as other members of senior management on various matters,” reports Chubb in their News Releases.

“Ms. Rebollar rejoins Chubb from Clever Leaves, where she served as general counsel for the past year. From 2011 to 2019, Ms. Rebollar served as Senior Vice President and Managing Counsel, Global Corporate Affairs at Chubb. Ms. Rebollar is based in New York and reports to Joe Wayland, Executive Vice President, Chubb Group and General Counsel. The appointment is effective immediately.”

Read the article.