

CITGO Names Mark Holstein New General Counsel

“CITGO Petroleum Corporation announced the appointment of Mark Holstein as the company’s new General Counsel, overseeing all aspects of the company’s legal strategy and material litigation, while providing legal counsel and advising senior management. Holstein will report directly to Jack Lynch,” reports Cision PR Newswire in their blog.

“CITGO holds itself to the highest standards of moral, legal and ethical behavior,” said Carlos Jorda, President and Chief Executive Officer of CITGO. “Mark brings a wealth of experience and insight dealing with complex legal issues related to the energy industry, and we welcome him to this vitally important position at CITGO.”

Read the article.