

Cohen Seglias Welcomes Anthony H. Chwastyk

PHILADELPHIA – December 16, 2020) – Cohen Seglias Pallas Greenhall & Furman PC is pleased to announce that Anthony H. Chwastyk has joined the firm as senior counsel in the Philadelphia office. He is a member of the Business Transactions Group and chair of the firm's new Trademark & Copyright Law Group.

Chwastyk serves as counsel to companies in highly regulated and growing industries such as healthcare and e-commerce. He previously served as corporate counsel for a large New Jersey-based nonprofit healthcare system, and as general counsel to a mid-sized New Jersey industrial supplier.

Chwastyk helps clients navigate compliance and regulatory challenges, drawing on his in-house experience to help clients avoid potential liabilities. He reviews, negotiates, and implements high-value software agreements, vendor contracts, real estate transactions, and financing arrangements. His practice also involves advising clients on the process of applying for and protecting their trademark and copyright rights.

Chwastyk interned for The Honorable Mark I. Bernstein of the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas. He earned his J.D., cum laude, from Drexel University and his B.A., summa cum laude, from La Salle University.
