

College Appoints Matthew Lahey as Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

“The College announced the appointment of the new Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary Matthew D. Lahey on Jan. 11. At Oberlin, Lahey will be responsible for a number of Oberlin’s legal needs, in addition to overseeing the restructuring of the Board of Trustees bylaws and,” reports Kushagra Kar in The Oberlin Review.

“Supporting the implementation of One Oberlin. Lahey’s appointment has sparked controversy among Oberlin alumni, faculty, and staff and who are concerned about a LinkedIn profile that included union avoidance among his skills. Following the creation of the Office of the Vice President, Following the creation of the Office of the Vice.”

Read the article.