Compliance 101: Health Insurance Premium Reimbursement

With health reform in full effect, compliance is top of mind for employers, health insurance brokers, and CPAs. As employers transition to individual health insurance and premium reimbursement, there are important compliance considerations to understand and comply with.

Zane Benefits offers a complimentary 60-minute on-demand webinar that covers the issue.

On its website, Zane Benefits says this session will cover:

- 3 ways to reimburse employees for individual health insurance
- The federal regulations employers must follow to avoid costly fines
- Tips for administering a compliant, tax-free reimbursement plan in 5 minutes per month
- Answers to common compliance questions
