

Compliance Checkup: Year End 2020 – No Looking Back

“We often think of 20/20 vision in the context of great eyesight. But this analogy about perspective is especially meaningful in health care. If there is one good thing about the year 2020, it is that it has given us many opportunities to have great perspective. And while we’d love to forget it and not look back, we would be remiss if we did not try to use our new perspective as we forge ahead,” writes Nicole M. Thorn in Brouse McDowell’s Health Care.

This post shares, from a legal perspective, some priorities you may want consider for 2021.
