

Connecticut Law Tribune Honors Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. with Multiple 2021 Connecticut Legal Awards

Connecticut Law Tribune Honors Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. with Multiple 2021 Connecticut Legal Awards

Trumbull, Connecticut (May 14, 2021) – Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. (SDV) is proud to announce its recognition by the Connecticut Law Tribune at the 2021 Connecticut Legal Awards annual celebration held on May 12.

As a firm dedicated solely to policyholder coverage, SDV received the Litigation Department of the Year – Insurance Award. SDV's highly skilled team of attorneys have successfully argued in appellate, federal, and state courts nationwide, have been involved in a multitude of precedent-setting decisions, and have recovered nearly $1 billion on behalf of clients in the firm's 25-year history.

SDV is honored to have also received the Diversity Initiative Award in recognition of its diversity and inclusion efforts. The firm's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee is committed to providing a work environment that encourages mutual respect and is free of harassment, discrimination, and bias. As one of the first law firms in the state to sign the Connecticut Bar Association's Diversity & Inclusion Plan and Pledge, SDV strives to create a workplace that embraces the collective value of our employees' differences.

Finally, SDV would like to congratulate its Partners, who were recognized for their individual achievements. Founding Partner Tracy Alan Saxe was a finalist for the Best Mentor Award, while founding Partner Jeffrey J. Vita was a recipient of the Distinguished Leader Award, and Theresa A. Guertin, Managing Partner of SDV's northeast offices, was a recipient of the New Leaders in Law Award.