

Contract Renewals with a Grievance

“Barcelona are concerned about the direction taken by two contract renewals they are aiming to complete – Ronald Araujo and Gavi. Negotiations have been in progress for months, but there is no financial agreement. The two players want to stay at Camp Nou, but they are upset because they cannot see,” reports M. Carmen Torres in Marca.

“Any coherence in the financial commitment that the club is asking of them and the offers made to the players they intend to sign for the next season, namely Christensen, Kessies and Mazraoui. Barcelona hope that Ronald Araujo and Gavi, both of whom have contracts expiring in June 2023, will stay at the club. But they are beginning to.”
