

CoStar, Regency Centers Reshuffle General Counsel Roles

“Two of the largest U.S. real estate companies have announced new top lawyers,” reports Brian Baxter in Bloomberg Law’s Corporate Law News.

“CoStar Group Inc., a real estate data and information provider, said Wednesday it was promoting deputy general counsel Jaye Campbell to general counsel and corporate secretary. CoStar deputy general counsel and assistant corporate secretary Jeannette Koonce is being promoted to chief compliance officer.”

“The two appointments mark the start of a new legal and compliance regime at CoStar, where the law department has been led since 2005 by general counsel Jonathan Coleman. A CoStar spokeswoman told Bloomberg Law that Coleman is leaving the company and would not be retiring but ‘looking toward new adventures which are yet to be determined.’”

Read the article.