

COVID Relief Bill Contains Important Bankruptcy Code Amendments

“The ... COVID relief bill passed by Congress at the end of last year ... includes several COVID-related amendments to the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Some of these changes will have a significant direct impact, at least temporarily, on the rights of commercial landlords and tenants in chapter 11 cases,” writes Ben Feder in Kelley Drye’s Bankruptcy Law Insights.

Feder discusses these amendments.

Read the article.