

Crawford, Wishnew & Lang Adds Employment Attorney Camille Avant

Camille Avant, a Board Certified labor and employment attorney with an established commitment to providing representation and counsel to businesses and employees within DFW and the surrounding Texas areas, is joining Crawford, Wishnew & Lang as a partner, the firm has announced.

“I am excited to join CWL’s team of seasoned trial attorneys,” Camille said. “As an employment attorney, I understand the importance of finding the right fit at work. I believe this is it. CWL’s reputation is commendable, and I look forward to working with the team.”

Camille has vast experience defending employers and employees before state and federal courts, arbitration tribunals, and administrative agencies, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), U.S. Department of Labor, and the Texas Workforce Commission. Camille is an employment and commercial litigator and represents and counsels employers and employees in all aspects of employment, labor, business, and commercial law.

Before joining Crawford Wishnew & Lang, Camille was a partner at Clouse Brown PLLC, a reputable employment and commercial trial firm in Dallas.

Camille is a graduate of Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2013, and of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, B.A., cum laude, 2010.

Said partner Dave Wishnew: “Camille as a partner at CWL is a continuation of our devotion to protecting and serving the interests of our clients. We’re proud to have Camille as a key part of our team.”
