Crawford, Wishnew & Lang Welcomes Attorney Alexis Wright

Dallas litigation firm Crawford, Wishnew & Lang is excited to welcome attorney Alexis Wright to their team. “Alexis is an excellent addition to our firm,” said Dave Wishnew, founding partner at CWL. “Her strong work ethic and drive, demonstrated by her success as a collegiate athlete. Her extensive experience in various legal areas will provide invaluable support to our clients.”

Wright earned her law degree from UNT Dallas College of Law before launching her legal career at a leading Dallas litigation firm. She initially focused on advising and representing individuals and businesses in civil cases, including premises liability, tort, and general negligence. “Alexis’s distinct background enhances our team’s proven expertise in catastrophic injury cases,” Wishnew added. “CWL is always ready to take on challenging cases, and we are happy to have Alexis on board as part of our seasoned team of trial advocates.”

“I find great satisfaction in identifying key issues and helping clients find the best solutions,” Wright shared. “I’m excited to join the Crawford, Wishnew & Lang team.”
