

Crawford, Wishnew & Lang Welcomes Cameron E. Jean

DALLAS – Crawford, Wishnew & Lang PLLC is pleased to announce the addition of attorney Cameron E. Jean to its office located in Dallas, Texas. Jean brings experience in representing entities in matters involving employment and commercial litigation, among other things.

After graduating from Pepperdine University School of Law in 2015, Jean served as a briefing attorney to the Honorable Chief Justice Carolyn Wright of the Fifth District Court of Appeals at Dallas. He then clerked for the Honorable Christine A. Nowak of the Eastern District of Texas. These clerkship experiences gave Jean the opportunity to analyze varied and complex cases from initial filing through appeal. Jean comes to Crawford, Wishnew & Lang after several years working as an associate at Figari + Davenport, LLP, where he litigated commercial cases with a wide array of subject matter.
