

David Berdan Appointed General Counsel of the USPTO

“The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) today announced the appointment of David L. Berdan as its new General Counsel,” released United States Patent and Trademark Office in News and Updates.

“As General Counsel, Mr. Berdan will serve as the principal legal advisor to the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the USPTO. Mr. Berdan will also supervise the Office of General Counsel and its three component offices: the Office of the Solicitor, the Office of General Law, and the Office of Enrollment and Discipline.”

Read the article.