

Davis Wright Tremaine Adds Highly Experienced Employment Attorney to Its Market-Leading Team in New York

DAVIS WRIGHT TREMAINE ADDS HIGHLY EXPERIENCED EMPLOYMENT ATTORNEY TO ITS MARKET-LEADING TEAM

The New York labor and employment practice group at Davis Wright Tremaine, which recently earned the ranking of Highly Regarded/Band 1 from Chambers USA, has added another veteran practitioner to its ranks.

Lisa E. Dayan, who joined the firm as Of Counsel effective September 13, brings to the firm nearly three decades of experience advising clients on employment-related matters and representing employers in discrimination, wage and hour, and labor law cases before state and federal courts and government agencies.

Dayan's arrival reunites her with Davis Wright employment partners Laura Sack, Lyle Zuckerman, and Roy Salins, who worked with her for years at Kauff McGuire & Margolis (KM&M) before they joined Davis Wright together in 2015 to start the firm's East Coast Employment Services Group.

"We are all very familiar with Lisa's wealth of experience, her commitment to excellence, and her reputation for providing top-notch client service," said Sack, who co-leads the group with Zuckerman. "The opportunity to add her to our team was one we couldn't pass up. Her skills, experience, and mindset make her perfectly suited for us, for the firm, and for the clients we serve. I'm thrilled to join forces with her again."

Dayan has spent her entire legal career as a management-side labor and employment attorney. In addition to counseling countless clients on evolving L&E issues and representing them before courts and government agencies, she has extensive trial advocacy experience. She has also spent time in-house in employers' legal departments.

"Davis Wright has an extraordinary group of experienced attorneys," said Dayan. "I'm delighted to rejoin my former colleagues in growing their East Coast labor practice and I look forward to working with them to help clients navigate the increasingly complex labor and employment landscape."

Dayan earned her B.S. degree from Cornell University and her law degree from New York University School of Law. She began her legal career as an associate in the labor and employment law group at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett (where she and Sack first met as summer associates) and she practiced, most recently, for almost 20 years at KM&M.

Davis Wright Tremaine has one of the largest labor and employment practice groups in the country. In the latest rankings of the country's leading law firms for business, Chambers USA named Davis Wright one of the two-dozen top labor and employment firms in the country. In addition to ranking the firm's L&E team as Highly Regarded/Band 1 in New York, Chambers also awarded the team a Band 1 rating in Alaska and Washington state and named the team an L&E leader in Oregon and California.