

Davis Wright Tremaine Boosts Growth in Bay Area with FCC Counsel Thaila Sundaresan

Former Federal Communications Commission appellate lawyer Thaila Sundaresan has joined Davis Wright Tremaine's San Francisco office as a partner in the technology and communications practice, where she will focus on matters before the California Public Utilities Commission, the FCC, and on other appellate and regulatory matters.

Before her work at the FCC, Sundaresan was in the appellate and litigation practices at Sidley Austin and WilmerHale.

Sundaresan received her B.A. from Stanford University, with honors, and her J.D. from the University of Maryland's Francis King Carey School of Law, where she graduated magna cum laude.
