

Denise Williamee Joins Steel City Re as Vice President of Corporate Services

Denise Williamee has joined Steel City Re as Vice President of Corporate Services, where she heads client relations and education for integrated reputation groups.

Williamee's broad experience in the legal industry includes serving as a Deputy Clerk for US Magistrate Judge Joseph Miller, as well as working on a range of civil and criminal litigations and conducting a variety of investigations on behalf of clients, especially in the financial and healthcare sectors.

Previously, Williamee founded and operated a successful multi-location, full-service private investigations firm and served as the President of the Alaska Investigator's Association. She also sat on the board of Directors for the Alaska Innocence Project. She holds an AAS in Paralegal Studies (cum laude) from the University of Alaska at Fairbanks, an ABA approved program, and is an Associate member of the Chicago Bar Association.