

Des Moines' Davis Brown Law Firm Combining with Dentons

"Davis Brown Law Firm, one of Iowa's largest law firms, is combining with Dentons, which bills itself as the world's largest firm," reports Kathy A. Bolten in BusinessRecord.

"The new partnership is not an acquisition or merger but rather a combining of two firms that will share resources and services, representatives of the two firms said in an interview with the Business Record."

"Davis Brown, founded in 1929, has nearly 80 lawyers who work in its offices in downtown Des Moines, West Des Moines and Ames."

"Dentons has offices in more than 75 countries and numerous U.S. cities including Washington, D.C."
