

Digital Disasters – A First-Party Perspective

☒ Cozen O'Connor will present a complimentary webinar on the risk management and best practices for avoiding and responding to data breaches.

The webinar will be Thursday, Oct. 9, at 11:30 a.m. Eastern time.

On its website, the firm says Richard Bennett and Matthew Siegel of the Global Insurance Department will be presenting this webinar, which will cover the growing field of cyber liability, including the major data breaches that have been in the news lately. Richard and Matthew will discuss the nature of the risks, the legal landscape relating to cyber losses, and risk management and best practices for avoiding and responding to data breaches.

Included in the discussion will be an analysis of the first-party coverage implications, issues under traditional property policies, and coverage available under cyber policies. Finally, the speakers will discuss relevant case law and emerging trends.
