

Discretionary Denial and Beyond: Recent Developments in AIA Trial Practice

Fitch, Even, Tabin & Flannery LLP will present a free webinar, "Discretionary Denial and Beyond: Recent Developments in AIA Trial Practice," featuring Fitch Even attorneys Paul B. Henkelmann and Brian P. Herrmann.

The webinar will take place on Thursday, July 27 at 9:00 a.m. PDT / 10:00 a.m. MDT / 11:00 a.m. CDT / 12 noon EDT.

Since the introduction of inter partes review proceedings in 2012, AIA trial practice has been constantly evolving and the USPTO has signaled that big changes may be ahead. Starting with the USPTO director's 2022 memorandum issuing guidance on discretionary denial practice and continuing up to the Office's recent Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, this webinar will give attendees an overview of the latest precedent affecting AIA trial practice from the PTAB and the Federal Circuit, as well as current practice guidance and potential future rulemaking issued by the USPTO.

During this webinar, our presenters will address these topics and more:

- Recent guidance and proposed changes to discretionary denial procedures
- The latest notable decisions from the PTAB and the Federal Circuit affecting AIA trial practice
- A summary of proposed changes to AIA trial practice issued by the USPTO

CLE credit has been approved for California and Illinois and is pending in Nebraska. Other states may also award CLE credit upon attendee request. There is no fee to attend, but please note registration is required.

To reserve your place, please REGISTER HERE:

<https://register.gotowebinar.com/register/3394429222066916949>