

Distressed Investments: A Changing Energy Landscape

✖ Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP hosted a discussion on the new business landscape for energy companies created by recent market changes, FERC regulations and the Dodd-Frank Act. That discussion is now online as a free on-demand webinar.

The program focused on strategies in this new environment for aging and new assets and will explore the hurdles and potential opportunities.

Presenters are John Rapisardi, Co-Chair, Financial Restructuring Department, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP; Ken Irvin, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP.

Cadwalader has more than 500 attorneys in eight offices—New York, London, Charlotte, Washington, Houston, Beijing, Hong Kong and Brussels. They practice in antitrust, banking, business fraud, corporate finance, corporate governance, energy and commodities, environmental, healthcare, insolvency, insurance, intellectual property, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, private equity, private wealth, real estate, regulation, securitization, structured finance, and tax matters.
