

DLA Piper LLP (US) Announces New Firm and Practice Leadership Positions

“DLA Piper LLP (US) is pleased to announce a number of firm and practice leadership changes,” released DLA Piper in their Newsroom.

“The firm has formed an 11-person Management Team, which will support Frank Ryan, who assumed the role of Americas chair January 1, in the leadership of the firm.”

“‘I’m a strong believer in the power and importance of the team, and I’m pleased that this talented and diverse group has chosen to join me in the leadership of the firm,’ said Ryan. ‘Each of them has demonstrated a strong commitment to DLA Piper, developed a notable reputation in the marketplace, provided exemplary service to clients and has a solid record of mentoring others. I look very forward to working with them to the benefit of the firm, our clients, our people and our communities.’”
