Courtney Saleski named ‘Lawyer on the Fast Track’ by The Legal Intelligencer

DLA Piper announces that Courtney Saleski, a litigation partner in the firm’s Philadelphia office, was named to The Legal Intelligencer’s “Lawyers on the Fast Track.”

The publication selected 40 Pennsylvania lawyers under the age of 40 who have impacted the legal profession across the state. The honorees were recognized for their contributions to legal innovation, leadership and advocacy, and pro bono and civic work.

Saleski focuses her practice on appellate and complex motions litigation, white collar criminal defense, internal investigations and complex civil litigation. She co-leads DLA Piper’s appellate practice of 30-plus lawyers, is a member of the firm’s North American Pro Bono Committee, and is the pro bono coordinator for the Philadelphia office. Through her pro bono work locally and nationally, Saleski lends her services to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania’s Criminal Justice Act Panel and Supervision to Aid Reentry, which assists formerly incarcerated individuals in their transition back into the community. Before joining DLA Piper, Saleski served as an Assistant United States Attorney in the District of Columbia. Earlier in her career, Saleski served as a law clerk to the Honorable William H. Rehnquist.

About DLA Piper
DLA Piper is a global law firm located in more than 30 countries throughout the Americas, Asia Pacific, Europe and the Middle East, positioning it to help companies with their legal needs around the world. In certain jurisdictions, this information may be considered attorney advertising.