

Dykema Adds Corporate Finance Attorney Ryan S. Alexander to Its Los Angeles Office

Dykema, a leading national law firm, today announced the addition of Ryan S. Alexander to its Corporate Finance Practice Group as a Member in the firm's Los Angeles office. Alexander joins Dykema from Lewis Brisbois, Bisgaard & Smith, LLP.

Alexander concentrates his practice on corporate, commercial and technology transactional matters. He represents publicly-traded companies, privately-held companies, private equity funds, partnerships and professional service firms for clients in the automotive, consumer products, utility, government vendor, financial services and media and advertising sectors. Alexander has completed numerous M&A transactions ranging in size between $25M-$800M in market sectors including automotive, consumer products, defense, energy, gaming and health care.

Alexander has vast commercial experience and has completed transactions relating to the design, development, manufacture, distribution and sale of products and the sourcing of materials, products, and technology. He has created sales and warranty policies for several high-end consumer products manufacturers, prepared various distribution, dealer and franchise agreements, and has counseled clients regarding development, manufacture and sale of automotive components and restricted technologies.

Alexander earned a J.D. from the John Marshall Law School and a B.S. from Midwestern State University.
