

Dykema's Danielle Rushing Elected to the San Antonio Bar Foundation Fellows Program

Dykema, a leading national law firm, today announced that Danielle Rushing, San Antonio-based attorney in Dykema's Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Creditors' Rights Practice Group, was selected by the San Antonio Bar Foundation (SABF) as one of 25 newly elected members to the SABF Fellows Program.

According to the SABF, its Fellows are a group of friends who serves as patron of the charitable heart of the legal community. These elected members make a difference in expanding civics education, filling the gap for access to justice and supporting the pipeline of future leaders in the San Antonio legal family. Fellows are selected for their professional achievements and their commitment to the legal community.

In her practice, Rushing focuses on bankruptcy and restructuring matters. She currently represents several multi-million dollar businesses, particularly in the oil and gas/energy, retail, and transportation industries. Rushing has drafted and argued various motions in state and federal courts.

She is involved in several professional and industry organizations. Rushing currently serves as Vice President of the Bexar County Women's Bar (BCWB) Association and Foundation and a Board Member for the San Antonio Young Lawyers Association and Foundation. She also previously serves as both Secretary and as a Board Member of the BCWB and was a member of the 2019 class of its LEAD Academy.

She earned a J.D. from St. Mary's University School of Law and a B.S. from Louisiana State University.
