

Eastman & Smith Executive Committee Welcomes David Carter and Lynn Vuketich Luther, Re-Elects Fadi Nahhas as Chair

Eastman & Smith LTD is pleased to announce that David W. Carter and Lynn Vuketich Luther have been elected to the firm's Executive Committee for three-year terms, effective June 1. In addition, Fadi V. Nahhas has been re-elected as Executive Committee chair for the third consecutive year. All three are based in the firm's Toledo office.

The firm's other Executive Committee members are Matthew D. Harper, Steven D. Reinbolt, and Mark A. Shaw.

Carter concentrates his practice in the areas of estate planning; probate and trust administration; estate, gift and income taxation; and business succession planning.

Luther focuses her practice on representing management in labor and employment matters. She is a member of the firm's Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation and Labor & Employment practice groups.

Nahhas concentrates his practice in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, general corporate law, commercial transactions, and immigration.

The Eastman & Smith Executive Committee is the primary decision-making body responsible for overseeing the economic performance and long-range planning and direction of the firm.