Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott, LLC Attorney Adam Shienvold Joins International Association of Defense Counsel

The International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) has announced that Adam M. Shienvold, a Member at Eckert Seamans Cherin & Mellott, LLC in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, has accepted an invitation to join the IADC, the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests.

“I am honored to be invited as a new member of the prestigious International Association of Defense Counsel and to join my distinguished colleagues of the corporate defense bar who rely on the IADC to provide valuable, high-level education and professional support and development opportunities,” Mr. Shienvold said.

Mr. Shienvold focuses his practice on civil litigation and dispute resolution, with emphasis on commercial and business litigation; regulatory, administrative, and municipal litigation; and product liability defense in state and federal courts.

Among Mr. Shienvold’s professional affiliations are the Product Liability Committee of DRI-The Voice of the Defense Bar and the Pennsylvania Bar Association, for which he serves in the House of Delegates. He also was appointed by the Dauphin County Court of Common Pleas as an arbitrator for civil cases. In addition, he is a founding member and currently serves as vice president of the Hon. William W.

Lipsitt American Inn of Court.

Mr. Shienvold received his J.D. from The George Washington University Law School and his Bachelor of Arts from George Washington University.
