

Eighteen Gentry Locke Attorneys Named to Legal Elite List

Eighteen Gentry Locke Attorneys Named to Legal Elite List

ROANOKE, Va. (December 1, 2021) – The Virginia law firm of Gentry Locke is pleased to announce that 18 attorneys have been named to Virginia Business magazine’s 2021 Legal Elite. The list is determined by peer votes and is divided into 18 specialties. The Gentry Locke attorneys listed as “Legal Elite” for 2021 are:

Thomas J. Bondurant, Jr., Criminal & Government Investigations

William E. Callahan, Jr., Bankruptcy/Creditors Rights

Christen C. Church, Healthcare

Chip (John G.) Dicks, Government & Regulatory Affairs

Alicha M. Grubb, Young Lawyer

Gregory D. Habeeb, Government & Regulatory Affairs

Gregory J. Haley, Municipal & Local Government

Kevin W. Holt, Commercial Litigation

Paul G. Klockenbrink, Labor & Employment

Christopher M. Kozłowski, Banking, Corporate & Tax

Todd A. Leeson, Labor Employment

K. Brett Marston, Construction

Monica T. Monday, Appellate Law

W. David Paxton, Labor & Employment

J. Scott Sexton, Commercial Litigation

Maxwell H. Wiegard, Environmental Law

Spencer M. Wiegard, Construction

Clark H. Worthy, Real Estate & Land Use

Virginia Business polls more than 14,000 attorneys in the Commonwealth, asking them to select from their peers the best lawyers in each practice category. The 2021 list can be seen in its entirety here.

About Gentry Locke

With more than 60 lawyers practicing across a range of disciplines, Gentry Locke brings uncommon thinking and deep experience to the legal and business challenges of companies, institutions, organizations and individuals—a commitment the firm has met since 1923. Operating from offices in Roanoke, Lynchburg, and Richmond, Virginia, Gentry Locke serves clients in Virginia and across the United States. Meet the firm's dynamic attorneys and learn more about its fierce drive to achieve success for its clients by exploring www.gentrylocke.com.