Encana Names New General Counsel/EVP

Encana Corp. has announced the appointment of Joanne Alexander as its new executive vice president and general counsel.

She replaces retiring GC Terry Hopwood at the Canadian energy company

The company says Alexander has more than 20 years of legal and business experience in the oil and gas industry. Before starting at Encana, she was the senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary with Precision Drilling Corporation.

Read Alexander's company bio.